(10) GEOGRAPHICAL DATA

Given below is a detail of the map of Carbondale, Pa., that is given on pages 46-47 of D. G. Beers' Atlas of Luzerne County Pennsylvania From actual Surveys by and under the Direction of D. G. Beers. Engraved by Worley & Bracher, 320 Chestnut St. Printed by E. Bourquin, 320 Chestnut St. (Philadelphia: A. Pomeroy and Co., 320 Chestnut St., 1873).

Shown on this map is the brick Court House that was erected immediately following the fire on February 14, 1869, in which the original wooden Court House burned. This brick Court House is located on North Main Street in the trapezoidal lot directly across the street from the Public Grounds. When the present-day City Hall was erected in 1892-1894 on this same lot, the architect (Truman I. Lacey) incorporated the brick Court House (shown on this map) into his design for the present-day City Hall by adding a new roof with three dormers to the brick Court House. The Court House shown on this map is the two-story wing that constitutes the back portion of the present-day City Hall.
